

Please do not change or weaken the current Wisconsin "No Call" List. I do not want to return to the constant interruption and requests for charity that used to dominate my phone line. We cheeseheads are happy with our state's no call list.